SUBJECT Protest by Democratic Parties
25X1A against Three-anti's Campaign

NO. OF PAGES 2

NO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

1.  the Democratic parties selected HO Hsiang-ning (何香凝), 25X1A HSU Kuang-p'ing (許廣平), CHANG Nai-ch'i (章乃器), and LO Lung-chi
 (羅隆基)<sup>1</sup> as representatives to call on LI Wei-han, head of the United Front Department.

2. During this call, the representatives stated that the Democratic parties give full support to the present policy, but that they hoped for a date to be set for the termination of the Three-anti's campaign<sup>2</sup> in order to avoid disruption of other phases of work. They also requested leniency in prosecutions of industrial and commercial groups, with respect to interpreting the scope of "excessive profits", and in levying fines on old cases.

3. LI Wei-han answered that the movement would end in the central organizations on 15 February 1952, and in all parts of the country by the end of March. He also stated that the authorities may be lenient in the cases of HU Chueh-wen (胡 厥文) and TZU Yao-hua (資耀華)<sup>3</sup>.

25X1A  Comment.  report other indications that the 25X1A Democratic parties are not in full accord with the Chinese Communist policy.

1.  Comment. CHANG Nai-ch'i, a member of the National Democratic Reconstruction Association, is esteemed by the Chinese Communists for his help on their economic policies. An unconfirmed report indicates that he may have joined the Party.

25X1A  Comment. HO Hsiang-ning has been a member of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang Revolutionary Committee. She also helped found the China Democratic Peace Movement League in Hong Kong. HSU Kuang-ping is known to have been elected as women's representative to the National Assembly from Shanghai in 1946. LO Lung-chi has long been a leading figure in the Democratic League. In December 1949 he was reported to
